WERE UNABLE TO AGREE

Olmsstead Jury Discharged at Last by Judge Bradley.

MOTION FOR A REHEARING

The Case Will Be Gone Over Again in Court—Further Effort to Be Made to Get Evidence—Promise of Sensational Developments at the Next Trial.

The jury in the Olmsstead trial case came into this morning and reported their inability to agree upon a verdict. They were accordingly discharged by Justice Bradley and the case will have to be retried.

There was considerable delay upon the part of the jury, and they were not ready to deliver their verdict until yesterday afternoon. They were not ready to deliver their verdict until yesterday afternoon. They were not ready to deliver their verdict until yesterday afternoon.

Judge Wilson called a new jury, while Mr. Henry E. Davis paced the floor. Mr. Davis, Perry and Patton, counsel for the defendant, called Mr. Davis occasionally and finally got up a discussion with him as to the correctness of a given quotation. The discussion grew so heated that the judge had to call for order and counsel laughingly admitted.

REPLY OF THE JURY.

The courtroom was well filled with interested spectators, many of whom were members of the jury, when the jury filed in. The grounds that the jury agreed upon a verdict was the query that broke the stillness.

Two days later, the jury was returned, and the order of discharge was entered. Mr. Davis immediately moved to set Tuesday next for a rehearing, but he was overruled. The grounds that the jury agreed upon a verdict was the query that broke the stillness.

Mr. Davis thereupon gave notice that he would on the first day of the next term move to set a day.

The jury entered into an agreement in advance of their appearance in court not to give out any information. It is known, however, that the panel did not agree upon any verdict, and the case will have to be retried.

POINTS OF DISAGREEMENT.

These were as to the mental knowledge of the maker of the will; testamentary knowledge of its contents, the question as to the use of undue influence upon the part of the husband, and in the latter instance, the question as to the validity of the will.

ROBBERY OF THE STAMPS

Messenger Edwards Made $250 in One of His Thefts.

HELD FOR COURT'S ACTION

Commissioner Mills Commits the Man to Jail in Default of $2,500 Bail. Auditor Baldwin Testifies as to the Magnitude of the Losses—Three Clerks Dismissed.

C. C. Edwards, the colored messenger in the Treasury Department, who is accused of being actively engaged in amassing a small fortune from the collection and sale of revenue stamps on official documents, was committed to jail by Commissioner Mills today, in default of $2,500 bail, to await trial in the criminal courts.

This trial will be at an early date. The prosecuting attorney is anxious to press his case against Edwards, and he is practically admitted that it would be useless to attempt to give bail. Edwards was taken down to jail by Deputy Marshal Wilkinson, who first placed him under arrest.

The testimony developed in part the enormity of the stealing of stamps that has been going on. Only three witnesses were examined and they contributed only enough testimony to warrant the commissioner in holding Edwards. The witnesses were: Ernest P. Madden, auditor of the Treasury; Mr. Brown, of the army assay office, and Walter H. Hill, assistant superintendent in the secret service division.

MANY HAVE BEEN RECOVERED.

Fifty $250 stamps are estimated to have been stolen. Nearly 20,000 have already been recovered through Edwards and it is believed nearly, if not all, the others will come through him.

Mr. Hill stated that it had been discovered that thousands of the papers taken from the receipts from government employees in days past, and that these papers, which the stamps were on, were the only things that could be offered in evidence, as the payment of any salary every drawn of about eight years, from 1852 to 1870. They were the receipts of collectors and deputy collectors principally.

Up to date no arrests have been made except that of Edwards. Three dismissals have been made from the department, however. The names of those dropped are: C. D. Vining, a clerk in the department; J. H. Brown, a clerk in the department; and J. H. Brown, a clerk in the department.

There will be no more arrests made, said Mr. Baldwin to the Times reporter. "Unless there are new developments. There is no evidence sufficient to hold the dismissed persons. They took their chances, but were probably frequently torn off by the stamps, maybe one at a time. Edwards sold what he had in the market, and the stamps were sold to him. SAW ONE ROBBERY.

THREATEN TO STRIKE.

Trouble Among the Men in the Mines

Denison, Texas, Nov. 29.—Intelligence received today is that the miners in the Indian Territory will precipitate a strike. They number all told 10,000. The old scale of prices is demanded.

It is more than likely that a general strike will take place, as the various mining companies claim that they cannot afford to pay more than they are paying at present, on account of the condition of the market.
